Continuation of 13. Other: In regards to the arguments made against the priority objection, examiner agrees with the applicant and the objection has been withdrawn. In regards to the arguments regarding the crossed out Japaneses language references cited in the August 25, 2003 Information Disclosure Statement, the examiner maintains the rejection. MPEP 609.04(a) III states that a concise explanation of relevance can be satisfied by submitting an English-language version of the search report or actions which indicates the degree of relevance found by the foreign office. However, as the examiner has stated in the Office Action (8/10/2006) the applicant fails to explicitly point out those sections of the search report that are sufficiently relevant enough in order to be considered.
